

Funded by the Intra-Africa Academic Mobility Scheme of the European Union

SCHOLARSHIP OFFER LETTER

28th February 2018

Dear

Your application for an Intra-Africa Mobility Project for training professionals in fragile ecosystems (FE) management in Africa scholarship was successful and you were selected for a study at University for the Msc in The details of the scholarship offer are as follows:

Programme:	Intra-Africa Mobility Scheme
Host University:
Host University Contact Person:
Type of Mobility:	TG1 Msc
Area of study:
Maximum duration:	24 Months

Subsistence allowance

The scholarship includes a subsistence allowance of 600 € per month.

Insurance

Insurance coverage (accident, travel, health) will be provided for the duration of the grant within the limits of the grant provisions.

Travel costs

The Coordinating Unit will provide you with a one way air ticket between your home Airport and Johannesburg International Airport. A return ticket will be provided on completion of your studies.

Housing

The contact person will help you find accommodation.

Tuition fees

The Intra Africa Mobility Project scholarship scheme for fragile ecosystems (FE) management (REFORM) under participation costs will cover the costs of the fees following the MOU with University and such costs to cover library, student unions, laboratory consumable costs, etc. on an equal basis as the local students.

We wish you a successful stay at University.

Yours faithfully,

Professor Noba Kandioura
Coordinator